Local girl will lunch with Ronald Reagan

By FRANCES ABBITT

On Friday morning, March 9 at 11:30, Jan Armentrout, 18, will be enjoying a luncheon she is not likely to forget. She will be having lunch at the White House with President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan, Vice-President and Mrs. George Bush and the 1984 Gold Medal Olympic winners. Also invited are Dorothy Hamil, Olympics Gold Medal winner of four years ago; Helen Hayes, long-time Girl Scout member and Sherry Lewis, creator of "Lamp Chop", and cabinet members.

Jan, active in Girl Scouting for the past ten years, received this invitation as the result of her outstanding achievements in Girl Scouting. She is the only girl in her council to receive the Gold Award in Scouting, the highest honor accorded a Girl Scout.

She will be traveling to Washington with five other girls from Danville, Harrisonburg and Salem, who will be honored along with Jan at the luncheon.

For a Girl Scout to receive the Gold Award, she must put in a lot of hard work, exhibit an unusual amount of determination to succeed in the field of scouting and meet the requirements set forth in four areas of scouting — Leadership, Careers, Skills and Service.

The Gold Award does not come easy to any girl, but reaching this high goal has special meaning for Jan Armentrout, who at age three was taking as many as 15 baby aspirin daily for Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis. This illness continued to plague the little girl until approximately age five when the condition improved.

"When she was suffering from the arthritis, we had to carry her around," commented her father, Don, principal of the local high school. "It was really hard for her and for us," he added.

At age nine, Jan was diagnosed as having Sciolosis and for six of the 10 years she has spent in scouting, she was required to wear a body brace for 23 of every 24 hours each day.

The activities required of any girl working toward the Gold Award means lots of work. The organization, coordinating of all events, preplanning and scheduling for a dramatic event was one of the easier things Jan had to do. She had to participate in Girl Scout camping, and all the strenuous activities required of any girl with no health problems. But Jan didn't let the back brace deter her. She was determined to reach her goal of the Gold Award.

"My mother helped a lot, "Jan commented. "She had been a girl scout and is active in scouting today and has been for many years."

"She talked so much about it and I felt I would like to go as far as I could in the work," Jan said. "I was beginning to feel that I wanted to be really good at something. Until Scouting, that 'something' had not come along."

As part of the effort leading to her being awarded the Gold Award, Jan had to put in a lot of hours volunteer work. Part of this was done at Air Virginia in Lynchburg. She put in a total of 108 hours under the supervision of the director of reservations. She spent 165 hours doing volunteer work at the Appomattox Historical Park. The greatest part of her time was spent doing inventory and serving as hostess, answering questions and giving out information.

"I remember one particular group of Scouts from Brazil," she laughed. "About the only English they understood was "My favorite American food is Pizza."

As a part of her training in Careers, Jan began her own business...The Duck-Game, a carnival-type amusement game. She went to Flea Markets, to Lynchburg, Farmville, and Abingdon. Her ultimate goal was to raise $1,000 by the end of the season to finance her trip to National Center West in Ten Sleep, Wyo.

Having been to Washington, D.C. to the annual Easter Egg Rollings on the White House lawn, Jan saw and admired the unusual Bunny Suit costumes worn by some youth. She promptly wrote Washington to find where she could acquire such a suit. In no time at all the suit arrived.

Jan has been very active in her troop was working with the local Day Care Center. She donned the suit and was immediately a hit. She made several appearances in her bunny suit and the most exciting was to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington.

The list of Jan's accomplishments goes on and on. All the while, she kept up with the strenuous exercise program a necessary part of her treatment for Sciolosis.

Jan is president of the Planning Board for Older Girls in Scouting. As part of her service training she taught arts and crafts to younger children. "We had 25 Brownies and all 25 wanted butterflies made identically. It was a lot of work but I did it," she said with a smile.

"I m really excited about the trip," Jan said. "When the call came concerning the invitation, I let out a scream and my mother didn't know what was wrong. I found it hard to believe and too good to be true. I'm looking forward to the luncheon."

"We are indeed proud of Jan," said her father. "She has worked for many years to reach her goal and to be awarded the Gold Award in Scouting. And we are proud that she will have the opportunity to lunch with the President and the Olympic Gold Medal winners who have worked for many years to reach their goals, too," he concluded.

JAN ARMENTROUT, Girl Scout Gold Award winner will be lunching in Washington, D. C. Friday of this week with President and Mrs. Reagan.

School board meeting set

The Appomattox County School Board will meet today (Wednesday) at 3:30 p.m. at Appomattox Primary School.

In addition to the regular monthly reports, the board members will discuss a proposal for a bookmobile to be operated during the summer months, as well as an update on the proposed school budget for 1984-85.

Lions Club gets meeting

The Appomattox Lions Club will meet on Tuesday evening, March 8 at 6:45 at the Country Fare Restaurant.

Bud LaRoche of the Virginia Game Commission will be guest speaker. His topic will be The State Striped Bass Stocking Program. In addition a film concerning the Striped Bass Hatcheries in Brookneal will be shown.

All members are urged to attend.

Festival plans are underway

Plans are already under way for the 12th Annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival to be held this year on October 13 and 14.

The Festival Board meets every second Tuesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. at the Town Office Building. Anyone wanting to be a part of the planning for the festival, or if you have some ideas for some new activities you would like to see at the festival, please feel free to come to any of the meetings.

Listed below are the chairman of the various areas of the festival. Please contact these people according to your specific interest or write to P.O. Box 513, Appomattox, VA 24522.

Preschool registration slated for March 22

Preschool registration for children who will enter school in September will be held at Appomattox Primary School on Thursday and Friday, March 22 and 23. Parents may register their children on either date from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

To enter school, a student must have a record of a comprehensive physical examination given by a licensed physician within the past 12 months. A certificate from a licensed physician certifying that the child has been immunized against communicable diseases is also required.

Children may attend kindergarten during the 1984-85 school year who have reached their fifth birthday on or before Dec. 31 of the school year.

A parent or guardian enrolling a child who will reach the age of five after Sept. 30 and on or before Dec. 31 of the school year will want to discuss with the principal the advisability of the child attending kindergarten.

Children may be admitted to first grade for the 1984-85 school session who have reached their sixth birthday on or before Dec. 31, 1984.

To verify a child's age, parents must present a birth certificate, hospital statement or acceptable record upon registration at the local school.

Employment of personnel and development of plans for the 1984-85 school year are based upon the enrollment of school students. Therefore, it is very important that all children who are eligible to enter Kindergarten or first grade next year who are not in school this year register on March 22 or 23.

Food give-away set

The Appomattox County Department of Social Services will distribute cheese, butter and powdered milk at the Main Street railroad depot from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, March 20.

Francis Elliott, volunteer surplus food coordinator, says that eligibility categories have been expanded for the March distribution.

As usual, recipients of food stamps, medicaid, and aid to dependent children are eligible. In addition, recipients of supplemental security income (SSI), fuel assistance and persons with gross income below 130 percent of the poverty level will be eligible for surplus food.

People requesting surplus food to sign a form listing all household members and all gross monthly income. The gross monthly income will be computed as follows to determine eligibility:

| Family Size. | Monthly Gross Inc. |
|---|---|
| 1 | $ 527 |
| 2 | 709 |
| 3 | 891 |
| 4 | 1,073 |
| 5 | 1,255 |
| 6 | 1,437 |
| 7 | 1,619 |
| 8 | 1,801 |
| 9 | 1,983 |
| 10 | $2,165 |
| 11 | 3,947 |
| 12 | 3,529 |
| 13 | 3,711 |

Recipients of food stamps must bring the surplus food notice that came with the March food stamps for recipients must show their medicaid identification cards. Recipients of ADC and fuel assistance will be checked against a master list.

Chamber plans first breakfast meeting

A breakfast meeting to discuss possible Chamber of Commerce projects is scheduled for Friday morning (March 9) at 7:30 a.m. at the Country Fare Restaurant.

The meeting is open to the Appomattox County Chamber of Commerce general membership, as well as anyone else interested in projects for the business community of the county.

One major project which will be discussed is the proposed trade show for Appomattox County.

Bill Burke will present information he has gathered researching the trade-show concept. Burke has been in touch with organizations in communities similar to Appomattox which have had successful trade shows.

Another topic which will be discussed is a program co-sponsored by the chamber of commerce and Virginia Tech. The program is a two-day seminar titled, "How To Survive in a Small Business," and is scheduled for Thursday and Friday evenings, March 29 and 30.

This program will feature speakers who will address a variety of issues of importance to the small-business person, ranging from tax laws to computers in the world of small business.

Chambers members will also discuss the possibility of having the breakfast meetings, which will be held on an informal basis, as regular monthly meetings.

"Tis a time for voting. All over. Be that way until after the big one in November. It's 1 had my choice, I would like to cast my ballot for something have not seen on the ballot line-up, and that is for some "seasonable weather." And by that I refer to some warming sunshine and a chance for lowland to dry out so can get garden space ready for planting. Still early, yes, but note that several frosts have not killed buds.

* * *

Thanks for a card and a letter from my friend Walter Rodbe. From California, and he enclosed some items for my collections. Walter was in Farmville and Cumberland for years until moved to the West Coast.

* * *

We are sorry to hear that Farmville, due to a plant closing, will lose one of its top payrolls. Let us hope that Appomattox keeps, and supports, employment up to par.

* * *

Most recent figures show that Virginia highway deaths are up about 35 over same date last year. Why? Frequent cause seems to be running off the road and hitting a tree. No safe way to relax while driving a vehicle.

* * *

Tid bit of how times change. Time was when a man needed to have his "Sunday suit" pressed, there was a small room available where he waited at the pressing shop while the job was being done. He only had one pair of dress trousers. Now most fellows can blossom out with a fresh pair all week.

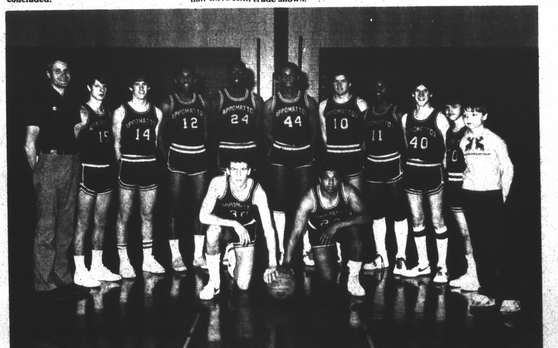
* * *

April 9, Appomattox's big date in History, approaches, generations have come and gone since the eventful day in 1865 when the name Appomattox was made famous. We who live here have a responsibility to preserve our Heritage untarnished, unerased and variant. One thing have always wanted and that is to enlarge the collection of relics and Civil War souvenirs available here for the visiting public to see. One big item is the bugle used to sound the last charge and assembly here that fateful April 9. It is in the Museum at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y. Would it help if every school child in Appomattox County were to write and mail a letter to the Museum asking that it be returned, or at least loaned for display next April 9? The bugle belonged to Bugler Nathanial Sisson, Brigade Bugler of the Union Army under General George Armstrong Custer. It became Item 5931 at the West Point Museum and was presented by Mrs. Laurie M. Eck, of Maryville, Mo. and Lt. L. M. Eck. And while we are at it, wish we had Joe Sweeney's original Banjo, which is in Los Angeles.

Lately I have renewed reading Harper's, one of our top magazines, and said to be the oldest, having been established in 1850. Found an interesting item. The Drive-In Movie is an American institution. As of 1982, there remained 3,570 in the U.S. Canada was next with 295. Australia with 293. Only 8 in Mexico, 1 in Bolivia, etc.

* * *

Thanks for reading and now I will try to get around to answering some of my mail. Seeya around and keep Appomattox Growing.



THE APPOMATTOX RAIDER VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM earned a spot in the Region III high school basketball playoffs with their second-place finish in last week's Seminole District tournament. The Raiders, who lost a 52-51 cliffhanger to Gretna in the finals of the district tournament, are scheduled to play Martinsville in the first round of the Region III tournament this Thursday night at Rustburg.
